Jewel Winds

This ensemble provides outreach concerts on behalf of the Rome Concert Band. The programs contain an eclectic mix, from Bach to the Beatles and beyond. Jewel Winds can perform in a variety of settings and has something for every musical taste.

Our musical offerings include:

Children's Concerts

Designed with young listeners in mind, the centerpiece of each Children's Concert is a musical story with narration.

Holiday Performances

A varied collection of popular and beautiful Christmas selections comprise the quintet's holiday concert programs.

Cocktail Parties

Pops and light, tuneful music of the chamber music genre, played impeccably by Jewel Winds, add distinction to any gathering.

Weddings

Sacred and classical music as well as the usual wedding songs are available from the quintet.

Formal Recitals

Jewel Winds plans and performs recitals showcasing great music of the woodwind quintet repertoire.

“Fabulous Fables!”

A family concert featuring Rebecca Oswald’s Aesop’s Fables for listeners of all ages.

The five short movements of Aesop’s Fables are performed with narrator, and provide young listeners insight into the characteristics of the five instruments of the woodwind quintet. The fables presented in this work are as follows:

The Ant and the Grasshopper

The City Mouse and the Country Mouse

The Wind and the Sun

The Tortoise and the Hare

The Lion and the Mouse

Aesop’s Fables is the centerpiece of an enjoyable family concert by Jewel Wind. The concert lasts approximately 40 minutes, and listeners of all ages are invited.

On Friday, June 11th at the Fort Plain School District, the Jewel Winds quintet will present two morning concerts for grades K-1 and 2-3, respectively. Each concert will be focused on introducing the five instruments of the quintet, and each will include the piece “Aesop’s Fables” by Rebecca Oswald, featuring narrator Beth Evans. Jewel Winds consists of musicians Corni Brewster, flute; Jan Bookhout, oboe; Colleen O’Neil, clarinet; Judy Marchione, bassoon; and Ilze Brink-Button, French horn. This concert is funded via a special arts grant obtained by the Fort Plain School District.
